Albury and District Historical Society fosters the study of all aspects of the social history of Albury and District. The Society promotes the collection and conservation of photographs, documents and information relative to Albury and District history.

The Society offers members and friends:

- Monthly meetings.7.30 pm - second Wednesday of each month - February to December at the Commercial Club Albury.
- 11 Monthly issues of the A&DHS Bulletin via email or hard copy.
- Research via the Archives at the AlburyCity LibraryMuseum
- Street walks, talks and Pioneer Cemetery tours.

The Society also accepts family bequests and financial donations as part of its ongoing program to support historical research, education scholarships, conservation and enhancement of the Albury LibraryMuseum collection.
